

Amendment 25 Formally Certified

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson officiates today at the formal certification of the 25th Amendment to the Constitution — a change that takes two burdens from the President's mind.

The amendment establishes means for dealing with presidential disability and for filling a vacancy in the office of vice president.

It actually became part of the Constitution Feb. 10, when the 38th state ratified the amendment.

Today's White House activities mostly are ceremonial.

Johnson, who twice has undergone major surgery while President, no longer need make a private agreement with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey about who should do what in case of presidential disability.

Briefly, the amendment provides for the vice president to discharge powers and duties of the presidency if the president, or the vice president and a majority of the Cabinet or other body set by law, write Congress that the president is disabled.

The president gets the powers and duties back again when he says he's no longer disabled. If the vice president and the previously named executives disagree, Congress decides who's right.

The amendment provides that any vacancy in the vice presidency be filled by presidential nomination and confirmation by Congress.

The country has been without a vice president 16 times covering 37 years. But the president never died when the No. 2 job was vacant.

Existing presidential succession law which places the speaker of the House and Senate president pro-tem in line after the vice president still is available in case a president and vice president ever die so close together in time that a new vice president can't be picked under the new amendment.

WRONG QUESTION
NEW YORK (AP) — If the "God-is-dead" theorists mean that man's sense of experiencing God has become deadened, then the proposition could be better put in another way, Erich Fromm maintains.

"We might better raise the question whether man is dead," he writes in a new book, "You Shall Be as Gods," published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston.

Future of Sukarno Is Doubtful

By T. JEFF WILLIAMS
JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesia's official news agency referred to strongman Gen. Suharto today as "acting president," raising new speculation about President Sukarno's future.

The Antara agency said "newly appointed acting president" Suharto would make a nationwide broadcast tonight explaining Sukarno's transfer to him Wednesday of all presidential powers. Sukarno at that time had retained the presidential title.

The Indonesian Congress had been expected to dismiss Sukarno, 65, and name Suharto acting president when it meets in two weeks had not Sukarno surrendered the last vestiges of his authority by then.

Political and military sources said that Sukarno gave in after Suharto agreed that he would not be brought to trial on charges of complicity in the Communist coup attempt on Oct. 1, 1965. But a new coup trial opened today with a prosecution statement outlining more charges of collusion against the man who had led Indonesia since he declared its independence in 1945.

The prosecutor, Lt. Col. Subari, charged that the defendant, Brig. Gen. Mustafa Supardjo, informed Sukarno on the day of the coup of the slaying of six top anti-Communist generals and the president expressed surprise that the defense minister, Gen. Abdul Harris Nasution, had escaped. Nasution is now chairman of the Congress.

Subari said Sukarno questioned Supardjo closely about the progress of the coup attempt, then hugged him and told him: "These things happen in a revolution."

Sukarno remained in seclusion in the presidential palace, and Jakarta was quiet after the announcement that he had relinquished his powers. The announcement had been expected for several days after weeks of maneuvering between Sukarno and military leaders.

For they all saw him, and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said "Take heart, it is I. I have no fear." —Mark 6:51.

J. W. CARTER

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Airman James W. Carter, grandson of Mrs. Irma Thomas of Rt. 1, Fulton, Ark., has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., as a U. S. Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. His new school is part of the Air Training Command which conducts hundreds of specialized courses to provide technically trained personnel for the nation's aerospace force.

Airman Carter is a 1965 graduate of Cooper High School, Abilene, Tex., and a former student at Texarkana (Tex.) Junior College.

BEATS THE BUZZER
PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Six-foot-3 Garry Agger's 20-foot jump shot three seconds before the final buzzer gave Lincoln Junior High School's basketball team a 59-57 victory over the South Portland freshmen. Agger, 15, led the scoring with 29 points.

Station to Review Old Radio Serials

KXAR will review the radio serial story of the 30's and 40's in two new series to begin February 27th. Two old favorites in modern dress will be heard in a special half hour of drama from 5:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Starting at 5:30 p.m. You can hear "Big Sister" and her problems of life. This will be followed by a daily visit with "Pepper Young's Family".

These and other radio dramas kept millions enthralled year after year. The advent of television saw most radio drama give way to TV Drama for several years. Now modern drama productions of Boston have taken old characters, put present day actors in a fresh storyline and they have found many old friends and many eager new listeners who daily enjoy the radio dramas.

General Manager Haskell Jones says he hopes the Housewife who does not care for the hour of TV news, the schoolgirls who perhaps have never heard a radio drama of this type will find this half hour most enjoyable. He is certain that "Big Sister" and "Pepper Young's Family" will add new friends almost daily to share their joys and sorrow. Hear them from the first days drama, "Big Sister" at 5:30 p.m. and "Pepper Young's Family" at 5:45 p.m. on KXAR.

Next time you serve baked potatoes, put some extra spuds in the oven and use these at another meal for potato soup or hashed brown potatoes.

Postmaster at Coy Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson nominated Tuesday Bert A. Williams for the postmastership at Beech Grove in Greene County and Ellis L. Chaney for the postmastership at Coy in Leno County.

Hearing for Man Charged in Slaying

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arraignment for Herbert Cecil Fletcher, charged with the Monday slaying of a Washington County deputy sheriff, was postponed until next Monday because Fletcher did not have an attorney.

Appointed to serve as his counsel were Courtney Crouch of Springdale and Walter Cox of Fayetteville.

Fletcher, a 32-year-old salvage yard worker from Lincoln, is charged with first-degree murder and assault with intent to kill.

Deputy Casto Robertson, 56, was killed and Chief Deputy Maurice Southern, 44, wounded Monday night at Lincoln.

Sheriff Arthur Davidson also reported Wednesday that the pistol used in the Robertson slaying was not Southern's, as was previously reported.

Fletcher and another suspect were picked up Monday during an investigation into the theft of some guns from a house near the Oklahoma border in Washington County.

Davidson said the suspect was being held as a witness.

Scot Barters Cloth for Fish

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — A Glasgow tailor is doing a roaring trade selling Scottish tweed to the Eskimos of Greenland — and getting paid for it in fish.

"Just the sort of export we like to see," commented a spokesman for the Scottish Council of Development and Industry. "Who says the Scottish businessman isn't export-conscious?"

Every month Norman Taylor

Thursday, February 23, 1967

gets an order from an Eskimo agent in Iceland. "Send us 100 yards of good cloth and a dozen thick overcoats" is a typical order.

Taylor sends off the goods, gets fish in return, has the fish sold through the usual market channels, and puts the cash in his bank.

"It works very well, really," Taylor says. "The Eskimos in Greenland want good Scottish cloth and this is the easiest way for them to buy it. My suits and coats are proving popular in the Arctic Circle and I've even some customers at the North Pole."

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

SPLIT-LEVEL ADOBE - Although at first consideration, the split level appears to be out of character for the Mexican and Southwest architectural influence, it isn't. Many of the old Spanish and Mexican houses had two steps up, three steps down, etc. This design does not have an exterior ladder leading to the second level but it does have the stairs immediately inside the front entrance so traffic circulation is controlled. The front wall of adobe with typical Mexican detailing encloses a very private courtyard with fountain and seats. Architect for Plan HA488M is Rudolph A. Matern, 89 E. Jericho Turnpike, Mineola, N.Y. 11501. There are 1,043 square feet on the living level, 963 square feet on the bedroom level.

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to Helen Help US!, this newspaper. SKIING NUT SHOULDN'T CHANGE

Dear Helen: I am engaged to this wonderful guy. There is only one slight problem. He is a nut about skiing, sailing and skin diving.

He's got a fine job and a good future. I could go on and on tell-ling you what a great, all-around guy he is. But will he ever settle down and stop some of these wild and dangerous sports?

What do you think, Helen? - JUDI

Dear Judi: ... He wouldn't be nearly the fine, all-around guy if he did. Skiing, sailing and skin diving aren't all THAT dangerous. Why not try them and see? - H.

Dear Helen: I am in the sixth grade and tired of being yelled at. My mother went to see my teacher and she told her I talk to stupid people which wastes my brain. What am I supposed to do, hang around with smart but unathletic kids with white socks?

Secondly, I got a pair of leather boots and my father tells me they are goofy. He said I have skin-tight pants, and I should get baggy ones.

Please don't tell me to mind my folks and get to my studies. But tell me SOMETHING. - WANTS TO PLEASE EVERYONE

Dear WTPE: Sorry, chum ... Mind your folks and get to your studies - if you do, I'm quite sure they'll come half the way to you. Give it a try! - H.

Dear Helen: This is in answer to "Disgusted" who hit junior high school kids with all fours. She's exaggerating. I just got out of junior high, and didn't see any of the stuff she mentions. I have no idea where she went to school, but around here most don't go for heavy make-out or makeup, and they know smoking and drinking are dangerous. Sure, I tried a cigarette ONE time. Hated it. I thought it was very immature, afterwards. - G. J. H.

Dear Helen: Cutting out junior high schools wouldn't solve anything. I live in a small town that doesn't have a junior high. I want to tell you that all the wildness and smoking and drinking and stupid fads don't necessarily start at 7th grade. I'll illustrate:

My first cigarette - sixth grade.

We almost gave our sixth grade teacher a breakdown because of our wildness.

First time to go steady - sixth grade.

Picked up bad language -

fourth and fifth grades.

One of my best friends went steady and made-out in the fourth grade.

Need I go on? I'm doing pretty well now that I'm in high school, but I didn't wait till seventh grade or junior hi to "get educated."

What I'm trying to say is that no one kind of school makes us pick up bad habits. We pick them up and discard them later just because we have to experiment. - HONOR STUDENT

Dear Helen: This awfully popular boy is my problem. I've never had trouble attracting any boy I wanted, but the girls all surround him and I can't get close. What do you suggest? - W. S.

Dear W: Sit back and look glamorous: He'll come to YOU. Girl-chased boys almost always single out the girls who don't chase them. - H.

Baboon Just Paid Her a Visit

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Who should Sandra Ivey look up to see walk into her kitchen but an unidentified baboon, standing 28 inches tall.

Mrs. Ivey called Dennis Kroepin at the animal shelter in Sylmar. Kroepin arrived, grappled with the baboon for 30 minutes and subdued it.

Richard Babb, senior kennelman at the animal shelter, said Tuesday he'll hold the animal eight days, then give it to a zoo if nobody claims it.

Livestock raising was practically the only industry in eastern Washington during the state's early days.

Bone Spurs Are Removable If Growth Can Be Stopped

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D. Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—I have a painful bone spur in my left heel. Cortisone did not relieve it but Indocin did. How long can I take this drug? What is the best treatment for a spur?

A—This is a common complaint in persons who are over 50 and are overweight, wear poorly fitted shoes or have to spend a lot of time on their feet. Cortisone will temporarily relieve any inflammatory reaction around the spur but will not remove the cause. Indomethacin (Indocin) relieves both the pain and the inflammation. It can be taken by most people over a long period under medical supervision. Surgical removal of the spur is effective only if appropriate measures are taken to prevent a new spur from developing. Because this cannot always be done many doctors have given up using this operation.

Q—What is the cause and treatment of osteoarthritis?

A—The cause of this very malignant bone cancer is unknown. It usually starts in one of the long bones and causes severe pain. Prompt amputation of the affected limb is the only treatment.

Q—My doctor says I have osteoporosis. What causes it and what treatment is best?

A—This disease, also called osteogenesis imperfecta, is hereditary. It is characterized by thinning of the bones and fractures following only slight trauma. The disease usually improves after puberty and in women returns after the menopause. This suggests that ovarian hormones hold the disease in check. Carefully regulated doses of these estrogens offer the best chance of controlling it.

Q—I have heard that pemphigus is always fatal. How long can a person live with it?

A—In this disease large blisters form for no apparent reason. It was usually fatal until the cortisone group of drugs became available. Potassium para-aminobenzoate has also been used with good results. With prompt and efficient treatment most victims can now live out their normal life span.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt will answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Illinois Coaching Job Is at Stake

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—The University of Illinois coaching jobs of Pete Elliott, Harry Combes and Howard Braun apparently were in the balance Thursday pending a statement from University President Dr. David D. Henry.

The statement, The Associated Press learned, is expected to include either notification of an appeal before the conference's faculty representatives in Chicago next week or announcement of dismissal of Elliott, football coach since 1960; Combes, basketball coach 20 years, and his assistant, Braun, who has been with him all that time.

Conference athletic directors threw the book at Illinois Wednesday. They voted unanimously to invoke the harshest penalty listed against the university for its self-acknowledged financial recruiting irregularities from an outside $21,000 slush fund.

The rule reads:
"Any member university which employs or retains on its athletic staff anyone who has violated, or who has been a party to a violation of the provisions of this (recruiting) rule, or who encourages others to violate this rule, shall be required to show cause why its membership in the conference should not be suspended or terminated."

The directors lowered the boom, ignoring a much less severe choice of penalty. They could have acted under another rule that provides only for reprimand or warning, or loss of personal contact with a prospective athlete for a period of time by a staff member found in violation.

The directors' action reportedly stunned Elliott, Combes and Braun as well as other university officials. None had comment.
When the slush fund scandal burst at Illinois in December, the university voluntarily disclosed facts of the matter to Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed, imposed one year probation on Elliott and Combes and declared seven football and five basketball players indefinitely ineligible for accepting illegal financial assistance.

Such payments from the fund over a period of five years ranged from $15 a month to one of $50.

In 1957, football coach Phil Dickens of Indiana was suspended for one year for recruiting infractions. Demand of his dismissal was sidestepped.

Since this could be considered a precedent, Illinois may decide to appeal for suspension instead of dismissal of its coaches.

Faculty representatives rule with finality. It is within their power to ease the penalty if Illinois convincingly shows cause why it should be done, but the athletic directors apparently have paved the way for harshness.

The players' eligibility can be studied and ruled on by the faculty representatives.
Names of the football players involved never have been divulged. Basketball players include stars Rich Jones and Ron Dunlap, promising sophomore Steve Kuberski, another sophomore Steve Spanich, and freshman Randy Crews. All remained in school except Spanich, who transferred to St. Ambrose.

Before the Illinois case is closed, action also must come from the NCAA. This probably will be in April.

Race Results Over KXAR Each Day

KXAR will broadcast the race results from Oaklawn each afternoon as they are received on the AP wire in most cases. The approximate schedule is as follows:

Major Cage Meets to Pick Teams

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
They start naming the college basketball's two major postseason tournaments, the NCAA and the NIT, and Holy Cross may be a surprise pick.

Virtually forgotten after they had lost four of their first five games, the Crusaders from Worcester, Mass., have put together a 14-3 record since then under the direction of Jack Donohue, perhaps better known simply as "Alcindor's coach."

This refers to Lew Alcindor, UCLA's supersophomore, who played under Donohue at Power Memorial High School in New York. Their paths parted in 1965 when Donohue became head coach at Holy Cross and Alcindor decided to enter UCLA.

The Crusaders won their sixth straight and seventh in their last eight by whipping Fordham on the road 73-63 Wednesday night. Led by juniors Keith Hochstein and Al Stazinski, the Crusaders pulled away after a 36-36 halftime tie. Hochstein and Stazinski each got 16 points.

Louisville, second-ranked nationally to unbeaten UCLA in The Associated Press poll, became the third team to qualify for the NCAA championship tournament.

The Cardinals crushed Drake 86-63 before a hometown turnout of 16,306 for their eighth in a row and 23-2 overall record. The victory wrapped up the championship of the Missouri Valley Conference and an automatic NCAA berth.

Westley Unsell and Jerry King each tallied 20 points to lead the Cardinals as they joined Western Kentucky and Connecticut in the NCAA field. Western Kentucky and Connecticut qualified earlier by winning the Ohio Valley Conference and Yankee Conference.

Fifth-ranked North Carolina pulled out a 79-78 road triumph over Maryland on two free throws by Dick Grubar in the last 23 seconds. Texas Western, 10th ranked, lost at home to the AAU Phillips Oilers, 67-61, in an overtime exhibition game.

Texas Western, as the defending national champions, appear certain to receive an NCAA bid, while Southern Illinois, which will not play in the NCAA college division tournament, may be invited to the NIT.

The Salukis, No. 1 in the AP small college poll, won their 13th straight Wednesday by beating Evansville 80-53 at Carbondale, Ill. Their overall mark is 18-2 including victories over such major powers as Louisville, Texas Western, Wichita and St. Louis.

Tournament hopefuls Canisius, DePaul and Virginia Tech kept their hopes alive by winning, but Georgia Tech suffered a blow by losing to N.C. State 65-61 at Raleigh. It was the second straight defeat for the Engineers, who fell behind for good at 58-56 on Nick Trifunovich's 30-footer.

Andy Anderson's 46 points led Canisius over LaSalle at Philadelphia 93-75. DePaul made it six straight by crushing Wisconsin-Milwaukee 77-48 at Chicago. Virginia Tech rebounded from its East Carolina defeat last week to beat Richmond 87-80 at Blacksburg.

In other games, all home court victories, Toledo routed Western Michigan 93-71, Bucknell 1 downed Penn State 65-62, Oklahoma City humbled New Orleans Loyola 98-73, Marshall overcame Miami of Ohio 77-62, Rochester whipped Colgate 97-87, Cincinnati overhauled Wichita 92-63, Duquesne surprised St. Bonaventure 77-73 and Temple drubbed Pitt 87-49.

On the road, Florida whipped Florida State 90-75. George Washington surprised the Georgetown Hoyas 81-75 at Ft. Myer, Va.

St. John's of New York, Syracuse, Boston College, Dayton, Houston, Utah State, Providence and Villanova did not play, but are leading candidates to land a tourney bid today.

led by John Egan's 23 points. Chicago, shooting for a play-off berth in its first season, blew eight and 11-point leads in the first half before clinching the victory by outscoring New York 20-6 during the final seven minutes of his third quarter.

Bob Boozer scored 23 points to pace the Bulls, who trail Detroit by two games for the fourth and final Western Division playoff berth. Erwin Mueller and Guy Rodgers each scored 21, with Rodgers also assisting on 12 other baskets.

Cazzie Russell scored 21 to top the third-place Knicks.

Canadian Trying for Panama Open

PANAMA CITY (AP)—Canada's Wilf Homeniuk, who begins defense of the Panama Open golf championship today, already is one shot behind his younger brother, Stan.

Stan Homeniuk fired a hole-in-one during Wednesday's pro-am competition, won by unheralded Bob Loy Jr. of Elon, N.C., with an eight-under-par 64.

Homeniuk hit the cup with a four-iron shot from 200 yards out on the par three 16th hole.

Loy shot five birdies and an eagle in setting a course record of 29 on the last nine holes and edging Sam Reynolds of Springfield, Mo., by one stroke.

Wilf Homeniuk, the 1966 Panama winner with a 283 total, was another stroke back.

Art Wall of Honesdale, Pa., the pretournament favorite, sat out the Pro-Am event because of pains in his right hand but is expected to be in today's starting field of 57 pros and 54 amateurs.

Former pitcher Walter (Dutch) Reuther scouts for the San Francisco Giants.

Bobcats' 2 Losses Dim Hopes

With just two weeks of play remaining the Div. 4AA basketball title is really up for GRABS. The Smackover Bucks defeated the Fairview Cardinals 67-65 to pull into a tie with the Cardinals. All Crossett needed to make it a three way tie was to defeat Malvern Tuesday night (Feb. 21) to make it a three way tie.

All three teams clinched themselves spots in the state tourney but they must settle the 1-2-3 position in the standings.

Fairview and Crossett battle each other on Saturday night at the Eagles court with the loser in serious trouble as far as title contention. Other games this week: Friday - Magnolia at Smackover; Hopeat Warren: Arkadelphia at Fairview; Camden at Crossett, Saturday - Malvern at Hope; Smackover at Arkadelphia; Warren at Camden.

The following week's schedule will be played on Tuesday and Thursday night's so time will be available for playoff of any ties in the first three places.

Other results last week: Magnolia 57 Camden 47; Fairview 56 Magnolia 51; Arkadelphia 51 Hope 50; Crossett 66 Hope 64; Warren 63 Malvern 65; Arkadelphia 76 Camden 53.

Barry McMahan did not have a big point production week but easily maintains the No. 1 individual scoring leadership with 282 points. Stan Parriss of Hope moved into second position with 232 points. Steve Nipper of Magnolia is third with 226 points.

Until Successor, the 1966 2-year-old champion, and the highly-regarded Dr. Fager make their first starts as 3-year-olds at Aqueduct next month, and the outcome of next week's Flamingo and Santa Anita Derby the situation among derby-age colts probably will remain confused.

The victory of Rising Market in the $62,550 San Felipe Handicap at Santa Anita and of Reflected Glory in the $34,050 Everglades Stakes at Hialeah Wednesday contributed to the uncertain Derby picture.

The San Felipe is a stepping stone to the Santa Anita Derby March 4 and the Everglades a similar prep for the Flamingo at Hialeah March 3.

The Everglades and Santa Anita Derby, in turn, are among the final pointers to the Triple Crown classics of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes.

Kentucky Derby Is Wide Open

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The only sure thing in the 3-year-old horse racing picture today is that the Kentucky Derby is wide open.

Until Successor, the 1966 2-year-old champion, and the highly-regarded Dr. Fager make their first starts as 3-year-olds at Aqueduct next month, and the outcome of next week's Flamingo and Santa Anita Derby the situation among derby-age colts probably will remain confused.

The victory of Rising Market in the $62,550 San Felipe Handicap at Santa Anita and of Reflected Glory in the $34,050 Everglades Stakes at Hialeah Wednesday contributed to the uncertain Derby picture.

The San Felipe is a stepping stone to the Santa Anita Derby March 4 and the Everglades a similar prep for the Flamingo at Hialeah March 3.

The Everglades and Santa Anita Derby, in turn, are among the final pointers to the Triple Crown classics of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes.

Howe Spells Doom for a Goaltender

There's nothing that spells doom to a 1-0 lead around the National Hockey League like Detroit's Gordie Howe coming in alone on your goaltender.

It was Howe against Ed Giacomin in the first period of Wednesday night's game and when the New York goalie came up with the big save on the NHL's all-time scoring king, it looked like it might just be the Rangers' night.

"That was a big one for me," Giacomin admitted later after making Bob Nevin's early goal stand up for a 1-0 victory and his seventh shutout of the season.

"I was afraid it would get through my pads but it didn't," Howe, who has scored 706 goals in 21 NHL seasons, seemed to shoot a bit early on Giacomin, who stood his ground. "That was because Harry Howell was cutting him down from the side and Howe figured he had to get off the shot fast," said Giacomin.

The victory boosted the Rangers nine points in front of Toronto and Montreal, who are tied for third place, and 10 points back of league leading Chicago. Toronto whipped Montreal 5-2 in Wednesday night's other game.

Eddie Shack and Dave Keon scored first period goals inside of two minutes, starting Toronto off. Dick Duff sliced the Leafs' lead in half with a goal 11 seconds before the end of the second period. But Ron Ellis, Jim Pappin and Brian Conacher scored third period goals for Toronto sandwiched around Claude Larose's goal for Montreal.

Clayton Kopp, who has scored 706 goals in 21 NHL seasons, seemed to shoot a bit early on Giacomin, who stood his ground. "That was because Harry Howell was cutting him down from the side and Howe figured he had to get off the shot fast," said Giacomin.

In Position to Please Both Sides

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration has put itself in a position where it can mollify the "hawks" and committ the "doves" if it should decide to call off the bombing to get peace talks started in Vietnam.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara laid the ground-work for it, intentionally or not, in testimony he gave senators last month although it wasn't made public until this week.

The North Vietnamese have demanded an end to the air war before any peace discussion can begin.

When the United States resumed the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 13, after a six-day pause during the Vietnamese lunar new year, President Johnson gave various reasons.

He said the renewed bombing was necessary "in fairness to our own troops and those of our allies." He said he had hoped the pause would induce North Vietnam to seek peace but, instead, it used that period to supply its troops in South Vietnam.

The resumed bombing, as in the past, was restrained and not all-out, which didn't please the "hawks" who have called for far heavier bombing. At the same time it irked the "doves" who want no bombing done at all.

But McNamara told the senators the bombing of North Vietnam has failed to reduce significantly the infiltration of men and materials into South Vietnam.

And to those who want the bombing stepped up, McNamara gave this answer: There is no bombing he could conceive of in the future which would significantly reduce the flow of men and material into the south.

If now, under domestic and world pressure, the Johnson administration should stop the bombing as a condition for peace talks, it can tell the "hawks" it wasn't giving up much since the bombing didn't cripple the north anyway.

At the same time it can argue it made a great concession toward peace because McNamara also told the senators that, despite his reservations, he believes the air campaign had been successful when viewed against this country's stated objectives in bombing at all.

He listed these as the objectives: (1) increasing the morale of the South Vietnamese; (2) increasing the cost to the north for its infiltration; and (3) raising the political price paid by the north to continue the campaign in the south.

"Those were the stated objectives we had in mind," McNamara said, "and we have accomplished them."

Thus the bombing in one sense can be interpreted as a bargaining tool and, in another, as a necessity. And, in turn, McNamara's testimony can be interpreted as presenting both views, just in case.

It is unlikely McNamara gave this testimony without first getting Johnson's approval since, while claiming success for the bombing in one way, it admitted the bombing was ineffective in some vital ways.

This admission gave ammunition to the critics opposed to any bombing.

On the face of it, McNamara's testimony can't be taken as preliminary to an intention by the Johnson administration to stop the air war without any signal from Hanoi that, once the bombing stops, peace talks can begin.

But, with McNamara's statement on the public record, the Johnson administration has a handy answer to the critics on both sides if and when it stops the air raids.

Nixon Purchases Lot in Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon has bought a lot on suburban Key Biscayne.

Nixon has vacationed on the island for the past 14 years. Donald L. Berg, developer of the lot, said Monday he hoped Nixon would build a vacation retreat on the site.

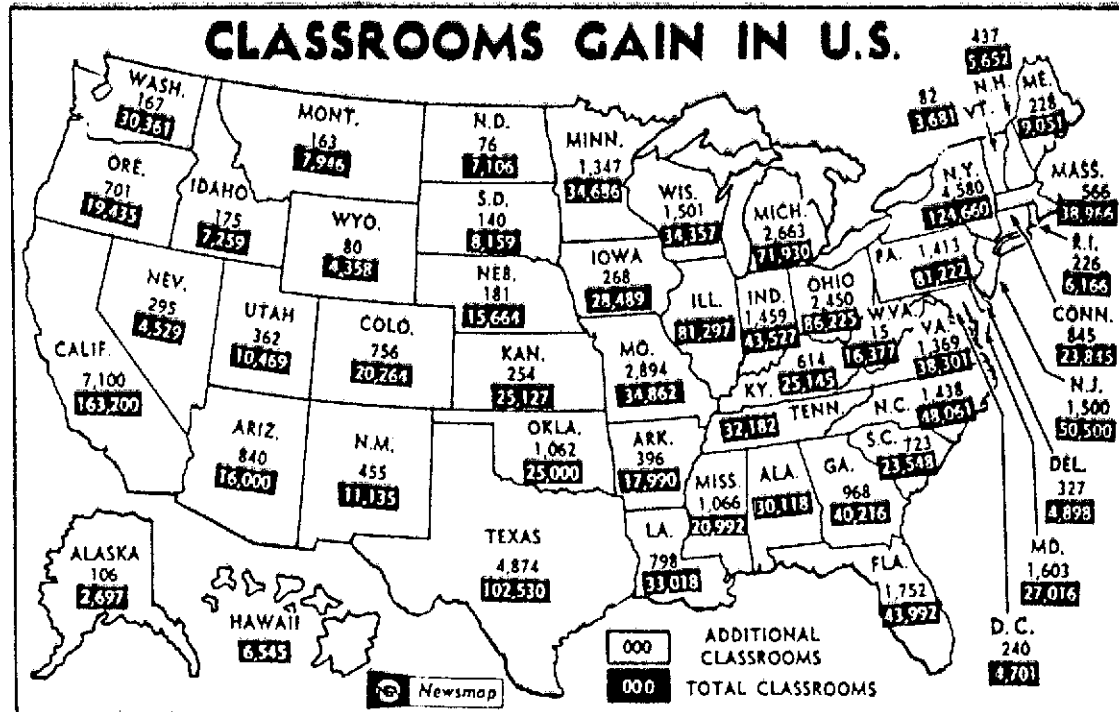

HOPE (ARK) STAR Vietnamese Students Tour U.S.

SAIGON (AP) — A hundred Vietnamese students, 35 of whom are war veterans, left for the United States today for study and bombing stops, peace talks can begin.

On the same plane were 12 teachers and officials who will make a 12-week observation tour of elementary schools in the United States and Formosa.

The students' scholarships and all living and travel expenses are being paid by the U.S. Agency for International Development. They are to be trained to assume responsible positions on their return to Vietnam.

The students, 17 to 32 years old, were chosen from more than 1,200 applicants. After an intensive six-month course in English in the California state educational system, they will attend universities in various parts of the United States.

More and more classrooms are being built in the nation's schools to accommodate the continuing flood of students. The above map shows the number of additional classrooms provided during the 1965-66 school year in each state. Most states built more "new" classrooms than the top figure indicates, but the "additional" classrooms figure was deduced by subtracting the number of classrooms abandoned in the same year from the number of new ones provided. Figures were not available for a few states, shown here with only the total classrooms listed. One state, Tennessee, built 739 new rooms, but abandoned 794, according to the United States Office of Education.

Russia's Stand Due to Tumult in China That Cut War Supplies

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Moscow's interest in Vietnam negotiations may have been quickened by a prospect that the tumult in China will make it next to impossible to continue supplying North Vietnam's military with what it needs to hold out.

Perhaps thinking wishfully, Moscow commentators appear to foresee ultimate defeat for Mao Tse-tung in China. The Moscow-Peking clash has hampered Soviet aid to Hanoi and created an atmosphere of tension on Soviet frontiers.

The bulk of Moscow aid to North Vietnam in the form of heavy equipment has gone overland across China. Other aid takes the long slow route by sea. An airlift would be difficult without Chinese cooperation.

Moscow radio quotes a Soviet specialist back from Hanoi as saying the Chinese place more and more obstacles in the way of shipping fighter planes, rockets and antiaircraft batteries. He implied the Chinese were stealing much of the materiel.

"The Chinese authorities constantly inspect weapons and war materials and during these inspections certain parts of perfected weapons or the mechanisms themselves are often completely lost," the specialist was quoted.

Another broadcast complained: "Many people still do not know what kind of obstacles the Peking rulers are setting up to prevent delivery of armaments, ammunition, food and medicine from the Soviet Union to Vietnam. The Chinese are holding up freight trains and damaging equipment."

"The Mao Tse-tung clique is trying to insure that the courageous struggle of the Vietnamese people will not become the decisive factor in making American imperialism retreat, thus bringing about a subsequent peaceful settlement of the Vietnam problem."

The Chinese now also demand visas for Soviet specialists and others accompanying such shipments, adding a new burden of red tape.

Another source of Soviet anxiety to see a break in the Vietnam impasse may stem from sharpening hostility which has raised frontier tension.

NICHOLAS KOVALAK, JR.

Nicholas Kovalak, Jr., Watchtower Society representative from Brooklyn, New York and District Supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses, has arrived in Hope in connection with the three day circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, February 24-26, at the Fair Park Coliseum.

The assembly will draw an expected 600 delegates from all of Southwest Arkansas. Mr. Kovalak will highlight the theme of the assembly, "Supply to Your Faith, Endurance". Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. He will also act as chairman of the public speaking and Bible reading class that is a regular feature of the meeting of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Kovalak, who has been in the ministry over 20 years, has supervision over at least 160 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in this general area. He is accompanied in his work by his wife.

Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m., there will be a discourse on the subject of Baptism, explaining the seriousness of this topic. It will be followed by an immersion service. This is a regular feature of the circuit assemblies.

The public is invited to attend the free showing of the new color motion picture film, February 26, at 3:00 p.m., "God Cannot Lie".

ville authorizing election ballots to be counted by races. The representatives also passed a bill prohibiting signs to be erected on trees along highway right of way.

In other action, the House passed bills:

—Declaring a runoff election one week after a school or municipal election in which candidates do not receive a majority of the votes.

—Making possession, sale or exhibition of obscene films a misdemeanor.

—Reducing the membership of the War Memorial Stadium Commission from 15 to 7 with the governor to appoint four members on the basis of the congressional districts and three from at large.

—Authorizing creation of vocational technical school branches when funds are available.

—Permitting the state Education Department to enter into agreements with more than one school district to educate physically and mentally handicapped children.

—Amending existing law to make child abandonment a misdemeanor rather than a felony on the first offense, but a felony if an offender leaves the state.

—Allowing small counties without bar associations to establish law libraries.

—Permitting persons in the affected area to vote in annexation elections.

In other action Wednesday, the Senate:

—Approved 34-0 a bill that would prohibit false or misleading advertising.

—Approved 27-2 a House bill increasing state income tax deductions from $17.50 to $25 for individuals and from $6 to $9 for dependents.

—Approved 31-0 a bill that would authorize the state Highway Department to issue permits at its weight stations for the movement of mobile homes on state highways.

—Approved 30-0 a bill to make a supplemental appropriation of $27,120 to the state Revenue Department for payment of extra help during the motor vehicle licensing period.

—Approved 33-0 a $125,000 supplemental appropriation for miscellaneous use by the Revenue Department during the fiscal year ending June 30.

—Approved on a voice vote a House resolution urging Congress not to pass legislation limiting the right of citizens to possess and bear arms.

Junkyards, Dairy Bills Introduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two compromise bills were introduced in the Arkansas Senate Wednesday—one to regulate the state's dairy industry and the other to regulate billboards and junkyards adjacent to interstate highways.

The dairy bill would establish a 5-member Arkansas Dairy Commission with the power to investigate the milk industry, require licenses and inspections and set minimum prices for the sale of milk and frozen dairy products.

Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock introduced the bill compromising the views of the state Highway Department and the outdoor advertising industry in regard to billboard regulations. The legislature must pass some such bill in order to qualify for federal highway aid money.

Sen. J. Lee Bearden of Leachville introduced an administration measure that would create an Arkansas Agriculture Development Commission similar to the state's industrial development commission.

Another administration bill, introduced by Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock, would set up a 30-member "Little Hoover Commission" to study the operation of each state agency and recommend possible consolidations, realignments or other efficiency moves.

Sen. Dan. T. Sprick of Little Rock introduced a bill to nullify the acts or votes of any state board or commission member whose service is in conflict with existing laws and to disqualify him for per diem or mileage expenses.

Sprick said the bill would apply to Glen F. Walther of Little Rock if he loses a court test of his appointment to the state Public Service Commission.

Rep. Herb Rule of Little Rock introduced a resolution in the House urging Rockefeller to use his authority to stop the sale by state agencies of lists of names and addresses of Arkansas residents.

Reps. Dan Cook of Camden and Grady Arrington of Stephens introduced a bill prohibiting discrimination in the sale of dairy products at wholesale to retail stores in the same area.

Also introduced in the legislature Wednesday were:

—A bill to require municipal and circuit judges to appoint attorneys when requested to by indigent persons taken into custody by law enforcement officers.

—A bill to require that a percentage of the revenue from all tax increases be used for the payment of teacher's salaries.

—A bill to eliminate the right of cities to pledge surplus utility revenues to payment of Act 9 bonds.

—A bill to provide increasingly longer sentences for habitual criminals.

—A bill to appropriate $1.5 million during the 1967-69 biennium for the Commission on Coordination of Higher Educational Finance to use in assisting in the establishment of community junior colleges.

—A bill to provide state banks the same tax privileges and exemptions permitted national banks.

—A bill to require plastic-laminated drivers licenses containing a picture of the licensee.

—A bill to authorize the state Publicity and Parks Commission to establish a state park at the Parkin Indian Mound in Cross County.

—A resolution recommending that Congress act favorably on bills giving official recognition to labor organizations for postal employees.

HOUSE

—A bill creating a mental health program to be conducted by the State Hospital and providing services for community and regional mental health clinics.

—A bill establishing an alternate retirement plan for teachers and administrative officers of state colleges and professional employees of the Commission on Co-ordination of Higher Educational Finance.

—A bill creating a state committed to stream preservation.

—A bill creating a state park at San Souci Landing on the Mississippi River in Mississippi County.

—A bill requiring retail and wholesale liquor firms to close at 10 p.m.

—A bill giving the 5th Chancery Circuit an additional chancellor.

Senators With the Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas Sens. J. William Fulbright and John L. McClellan Monday voted with the majority in the Senate's 54 to 23 passage of a bill to raise the national debt ceiling to $336 billion.

Group Dealing With Powell Reach Accord

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the select House committee on Adam Clayton Powell meet today to dot "i's" and cross "t's" in their report recommending seating, censure and setbacks for the controversial Harlem congressman.

Although at least one member confided he would be a bit uneasy until all nine signatures are affixed to the committee's report, agreement was reached late Wednesday on the basic accord to be presented today to the House for action, probably next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Under the proposal, Powell, who was kept from membership Jan. 10 pending this investigation, would receive his seat along with a stiff censure, loss of seniority and a requirement he repay from his salary government funds he allegedly converted to his own use.

This amount has been estimated at about $35,000, including salary illegally ticketed for his estranged wife and personal plane trips charged to congressional credit cards. It would represent more than half of the $60,000 salary he is to draw over the two years of the 90th Congress.

Rep. Claude D. Pepper, D-Fla., the committee's chief exponent of expulsion rather than seating with punishment for Powell, said Wednesday he planned to sign the committee's report, and Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., confirmed the recommendation would be unanimous with no dissenting views.

"As the report will be written I am going to sign it but that depends on how it is written," Pepper told reporters as he left the session in mid-afternoon to fly to Florida to fulfill a speaking engagement.

Pepper said the report would contain a provision spelling out his differences with the rest of the committee.

Committee members plan to unveil their detailed recommendations at a news conference later today. The report must be filed with the House clerk today under terms of the resolution voted by the House 364 to 64 on Jan. 10.

If confirmed by the House, Powell would be left with his seat but little else that he had accumulated in more than 22 years as a congressman. Democrats on Jan. 9 ousted him as chairman of the Committee on Education and Labor, and he is expected to be placed last in seniority among the 19 Democrats serving on the committee.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, count a hundred. — Jefferson said it.

Kennedy Plot Probe Is Spreading

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Authorities are investigating the death of a Florida man two years ago at the request of his brother who said he wanted a fresh probe because of the current investigation in New Orleans of the Kennedy assassination.

The brother, Earl Killam, said the dead man, Thomas Henry Killam, told him he fled Dallas in December, 1963, because he was being harassed by "agents." Killam said his brother didn't specify whether the agents were federal, state or some other type.

"I'm a dead man," Killam quoted his brother as saying. "I've run as far as I'm going to run."

Wanda Killam, the dead man's wife, reached Wednesday in Dallas by the Pensacola News-Journal, said her husband had been questioned several times about the assassination by federal agents.

Killam died beside a broken shop window on a Pensacola street March 19, 1964. His throat had been slashed.

Police said the death was an apparent suicide. The coroner called it accidental.

Earl Killam, 38, a car salesman, has asked Escambia County Solicitor Carl Harper to exhume his brother's body to determine the exact cause of death.

Harper said he took a statement from Earl Killam Wednesday morning and would investigate immediately. He would not discuss his investigation ex-

Counties Are Warned by Letters

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Letters will be mailed Friday to all 75 Arkansas counties warning them to stop illegal gambling violations, according to a spokesman for Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

G. Thomas Elsele, a legal advisor to Rockefeller, said letters would be mailed to about 25 counties detailing findings of a State Police investigation last week. The other counties will receive informal letters, he said.

Rockefeller warned Tuesday that he would act early next week to stop alleged gambling.

cept to say he was seeking concrete evidence, "not suspicions."

Harper said he planned to talk to New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who is conducting an assassination probe.

Wanda Killam said her husband returned to Florida in early December, 1963, saying he was going to look for a job. She stayed in Dallas, where she had been employed for several years as hostess in a night club owned by Jack Ruby.

Ruby, who died of cancer while in custody, was charged with the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused of killing President John F. Kennedy in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963.

Mrs. Killam said she, too, favored an investigation of her husband's death and said of the suicide ruling: "No, Hank wouldn't do that."

She said her husband was briefly employed in Dallas as a house painter by a man named Jack Carter. Earl Killam said Carter once roomed in the same Dallas boarding house as Oswald.

Killam said that after his brother returned to Florida he spent four months in Tampa and then returned to Pensacola March 15 to live with his mother.

Two days later, he was dead.

Thomas Killam received a phone call at his mother's home at 4 a.m. March 17, 1963, according to his mother. She said he dressed and left the house. She heard a car pull away, although Killam did not own a car.

About a half hour later, two street sweepers heard a crash on a city street. Police said they turned their truck around and saw a man staggering in front of a broken display window.

Killam died before he could be hospitalized. The police report said that, based on the presence of blood four feet inside the show window, it was concluded "the expired jumped through the window and then crawled back to the sidewalk."

25 Years Between 'Discoveries'

Editor The Star: Thanks a million for sending us a copy of your Feb. 15 edition. A great big congratulations! This Berkeley machine is looking better every day!

J. WARREN MCCLURE
Publisher, Burlington
Free Press
Feb. 20, 1967
Burlington
Vermont 05401

Vermont is a far piece from Arkansas, but the connecting link was a feature article on the new Berkeley four-color machine and Hope Star's purchase of the second one sold to an American newspaper, in the Dec. 31 issue of Editor & Publisher, New York, national newspaper trade journal.

The Burlington publisher wanted to know more about our Berkeley, so I wrote him and forwarded copies of our first two four-color productions, Jan. 28 and Feb. 15—and today's letter was his reply.

By coincidence, 25 years ago we had an exchange of letters with this same Burlington Free Press over an earlier adventure in newspaper automation.

On June 19, 1942, the late Clyde E. Palmer of Texarkana, Ray Kimball of DeQueen and Stuttgart, and your editor, opened the first multi-city automatic newspaper telegraph wire in America—the Southwest Teletypesetter Circuit, still serving us today.

It was a dramatic development. National and state news were typed just once, producing a perforated tape. The tape was fed into a telegraph transmitter, and in each receiving city a second machine reproduced a copy of the tape. This second tape was fed into the Linotypes, which, running without an operator, turned out the wire news in endless galley of type. It revolutionized newspaper composing rooms—and now Teletypesetter is standard equipment all over America and most of the civilized world. Our Linotypes are gone, but not Teletypesetter—now it runs the automatic typewriters called Just-O-Writers which substitute for Linotypes in our offset printing system.

Well, 25 years ago the Burlington (Vt.) Free Press wrote us for information on Teletypesetter—just as 25 years later it wants to know about the Berkeley machine and the automatic manufacture of four-color negative separations.

It seems that over the years some important developments have occurred in Hope, and your editor and his associates have been doing the talking. But equally important is the fact that we've had an alert national listening audience. That's how progress is made—and the Berkeley machine is going to find the same universal acceptance for color that Teletypesetter obtained for text.

The Berkeley machine is to color printing what the electronic Scan-A-Graver developed by Fairchild Graphic Equipment was to the production of black-and-white pictures. Both machines are automatic, eliminating hand-craftsmanship and human error, and speeding up production and cutting costs.

The Star had Fairchild electronic engravers for 10 years before converting to offset, as you know from our thousands of local pictures—and now the automatic Berkeley machine offers the same advance for four-color pictures.

Teacher Pay Bills Offered

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Three Arkansas House measures on distributing state funds for teachers salaries, each in a different method, received "do pass" recommendations Wednesday from the House Education Committee.

One of the bills distributes a flat $500 per teacher in each year of the biennium. Another bill would distribute the money by a formula devised by the state Education Department and the third would give the teachers a $500 raise the first year, and a raise according to formula the second.

The third, or so-called compromise bill, was worked out by the committee.

Highway Audit Bill Introduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rep. Herbert Rule of Little Rock introduced a resolution in the Arkansas House Wednesday asking that the state Highway Commission employ an independent firm to make a complete audit of the state Highway Department.

Rule's resolution was presented shortly after Commission Chairman Armit Taylor said the commission believes it should not be the agency to initiate a management study of the Highway Department.

Taylor said he felt that such an audit proposal should be initiated in the General Assembly, adding that the department is audited annually by a joint legislative committee.

Rule's resolution called for the independent audit and also that it be made available for public inspection.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has repeatedly called for such an independent audit and called for it during last summer's campaign for governor.

On another matter, the commission restated its opposition to a bill which would cause it to pay off the toll bonds for the Mississippi River bridge at Helena.

Taylor said commission members were on record as regarding the measure as a breach of public faith and the work of special interest groups.

"I believe in this statement we have met our obligation fully and completely," he said. "We don't have anything we can add to what we said."

The bill cleared the legislature and awaits the governor's signature or veto. It would require the commission to pay $500,000 a year for two years to retire part of the $9 million debt.

The commission also authorized that $81,801 be spent to screen junkyards in 10 counties and $49,390 for the purchase of scenic strips along major highways in five counties.

The commission also authorized $30,000 for the purchase of a larger tug boat at the St. Charles Ferry on the White River to cope with increased traffic on Arkansas 1.

Death Due to Asphyxiation

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Deputy Coroner Joe Childers issued a preliminary ruling Wednesday that the death of a truck driver found here earlier in the day was caused by accidental asphyxiation.

Gerald Wayne Stewart, 30, of Marion, Ill., was found dead in his truck, which was parked at a truck stop here.

Hints That Pilot Took JFK Assassination Secrets to His Grave

By BERNARD GAVZER
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison hinted today that free-lance pilot Davis W. Ferrie carried to his grave some secrets about President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Ferrie, 48, who described himself as a psychologist and private detective as well as a flyer, was found dead in his bed Wednesday.

Garrison, the 6-foot-6 gun-toting prosecutor, called the death "apparent suicide."

The coroner, Dr. Nicholas Chetta, said tests were not complete but death seemed due to a massive brain hemorrhage, with no sign of suicide except a curious, unsigned, undated note saying death was a "sweet prospect."

Ferrie was on the brink of producing information that could have been important, said Garrison, whose assassination probe—started long after the Warren Commission finished its work—has created an international sensation.

"We felt that he was really now ready to talk candidly, to contribute to this important investigation," said Garrison, "now he's gone and it will be much harder to make the connections between certain people."

Rebel GM Strike Idles 120,000

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Under orders to put down rebellion, leaders of a striking Ohio union are attempting to lead their United Auto Workers back to work immediately and end chain-reaction shutdowns that have idled more than half of General Motors' 240,000 auto workers.

The orders came from UAW President Walter P. Reuther and his 26-member executive board in a showdown meeting at Detroit Wednesday night. Robert Hall, president of Mansfield Local 549, promised to follow the orders.

Hall called a membership meeting and UAW executives said they anticipated an end to the seven-day wildcat walkout by the beginning of the afternoon shift.

With 133,500 idled in 57 plants across the country, GM said it would get factories back in production as quickly as possible.

But the company added, "Everything depends on the flow of parts from Mansfield," where the struck Fisher Body division plants makes body components for 90 per cent of GM's cars.

Reuther and his board threatened to take over Local 549, whose 2,700 members in the key supplier plant refused telegraphed orders Tuesday to end the strike which now spans eight days.

The UAW president called the strike illegal and said it violated both the UAW-GM contract and the UAW constitution.

UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock pointed out that the strike came at a time when lagging sales have left all auto makers with huge inventories and it only would pinch fellow unionists financially.

When other GM plants resume operations will depend upon how quickly the Mansfield plant is going full speed again.

Underlying the strike were complaints of Mansfield union members about what they termed farming out of work which should have been assigned to them.

Students Plan Silent Protest

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Students from Little Rock University and St. John's Seminary and several religious leaders will lead a two hour "silent protest" Friday of the Vietnam war.

But I'm sure we'll make them anyway.

"I'm just as optimistic today as I was two days ago."

Two days ago, Garrison was insisting that his effort to prove a conspiracy in the assassination of President Kennedy will result in arrests and convictions.

The President was shot in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963. Garrison insists that a conspiracy to murder him was conceived in New Orleans.

No "credible evidence" of a conspiracy was found by the Warren Commission, which said Kennedy was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald—a former New Orleans resident—acting alone.

Garrison said his office had planned to take Ferrie into custody early next week. Because Ferrie had expressed fears for his life, Garrison said he provided him a temporary hideout at a motor hotel here.

"Evidence developed by our office had long since confirmed that he was involved in events culminating in the assassination of President Kennedy," Garrison said.

The nude body of Ferrie, who operated a flying service here, was found in the calm posture of sleep, covered to the chest by a bedsheet.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Senate approved a bill to limit the political activity of state employees Wednesday while the House made its first attempt to override a governor's veto in many years and failed.

The Senate also defeated a measure to shorten the work week of firemen, killed a bill providing free textbooks in high schools and declined to change the date for the primary elections.

The House, on "non-controversial" legislation day, passed a measure creating a separate board to handle pardons, paroles and probation matters, freeing the penitentiary board to handle only prison affairs.

Rep. John Miller of Melbourne sought to override Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's veto of his bill permitting the removal of gravel from the White River below Bull Shoals Dam. The effort aborted, however, when the House voted 41-32 on reconsideration, 10 short of the required number of votes for passage.

Legislative veterans could not remember any other attempt at overriding a governor's veto in recent years. Rep. Jack S. Oakes of Augusta said he wasn't sure but he thought there was an attempt to override a veto by former Gov. Sid McMath in 1951.

Majority Leader Marion Crank of Foreman, who has served with Oakes in the House since 1951, said he could remember none.

"Of course, most of the period was during Gov. (Orval) Faubus' term and he constantly had the good judgment to discuss the issues with the House and Senate and withdraw from his position, never allowing an occasion like this to arise," Crank said.

Rockefeller vetoed Miller's measure, he said, to preserve the White's scenic beauty. Miller said, however, that persons in the gravel business were being hurt by a 1961 law he sponsored that forbids gravel removal.

Sen. J. Lee Anderson of Helena gave notice of reconsideration of the "Little Hatch Act" bill, which prohibits state employees from managing political campaigns or collecting campaign contributions.

The bill exempts the constitutional officers, elected officials or employees of the legislative and judicial branches of public school, colleges and university employees.

Sen. Dan T. Sprick of Little Rock opposed the measure because of the teacher-college scholarship exemption. He said income from the gift will be used these people are the ones who come to a scholarship each year to a graduate of Hope High School.

Albert and Al Graves, son and grandson of O.A. Graves, attended Hendrix and Harvard and are 15,000 or more population to operate three-platoon fire departments, reducing the work week of firemen from 72 to 56 hours, failed on a 17-16 vote.

The Senate amended the free text book bill to provide that textbooks would not be provided until the state's average teacher salary is equal to at least 80 per cent of the national average. The author of the bill, Sen. Bob Douglas of Texarkana, said this would take 10 to 15 years and the amendment by Sen. Clarence Bell of Parke had the effect of killing the bill.

The Senate tabled a bill by Sen. Milt Earnhart of Fort Smith changing the date of the primary elections after refusing to concur in a House amendment setting the primary on Tuesday in May. Original bill, the bill changed the primary by $33 million. While there is date from the second Tuesday in August to the third Tuesday in September.

The senators approved 32-0 a bill by Anderson prescribing the procedures for setting up junior college districts and establishing community junior colleges under Amendment 52.

The House approved a bill by Rep. Morris Henry of Fayette-

More China Army Units Turn on Mao

By JOHN RODERICK
TOKYO (AP)—Wall posters in Peking said today that Chinese army units have turned on Mao Tse-tung's supporters in Honan, the rich agricultural province known as the breadbasket of China.

Japanese correspondents said the wall posters reported the army was openly defying Mao in Honan and had arrested nearly 1,000 of his followers in Chengchow City.

Similar reports have come from Inner Mongolia, Sinkiang and Tibet.

There was also a strong hint from Peking that Mao is willing to call off his battle against President Liu Shao-chi and Communist party general secretary Teng Hsiao-ping if they submit to self criticism. A leading party publication suggested that they might be permitted to hold on to their jobs although it did not name them specifically.

The Peking posters said supporters of Liu in Honan were making a "cats paw" of security forces there and practicing "white terror"—assassination and torture—on Maoists.

The Liu men and the army have ignored a directive issued by Premier Chou En-lai Feb. 17, the posters said. Chou had called on the army to separate the belligerent groups, ordered the Honan Daily placed under army control and told representatives of both sides to go to Peking for talks.

The day after Chou's edict appeared, 14 Maoist headquarters were raided in Honan and their officials detained, and violence has gripped the province ever since, the posters said.

Honan leads all the mainland provinces in wheat production and is 90 per cent rural. The army's defiance there may reflect peasant opposition to Mao's efforts to overthrow the established political and administrative order.

There has been no recent evidence that Mao is making any real headway in the hinterland regions.

Graves Family Gives $10,000 to Hendrix

The O. A. Graves family of Hope has recently donated $10,000 to Hendrix College, according to an announcement by college president, Dr. Marshall T. Steel.

The donation will establish a Rock endowed scholarship to be known as the O. A. Graves scholarship. Income from the gift will be used to award a scholarship each year to a graduate of Hope High School.

Albert and Al Graves, son and grandson of O.A. Graves, attended Hendrix and Harvard and are 15,000 or more population to operate three-platoon fire departments, reducing the work week of firemen from 72 to 56 hours, failed on a 17-16 vote.

WAR ZONE C, Vietnam (AP)

U.S. forces have unleashed the greatest ground-air assault of the Vietnam war. They hurled some 45,000 men into a vast encirclement of the Viet Cong's national headquarters and a main base near the Cambodian border.

The drive, ranging 50 to 75 miles northwest of Saigon, began Wednesday with the first American combat parachute jump of the war, a drop of about 750 paratroopers into blocking positions behind the enemy lines and barely three miles from Cambodia.

The lightning assaults of paratroopers, helicopter-borne infantry and foot soldiers had most units in their assigned areas within a matter of hours.

The clear skies over the wide combat zone were criss-crossed with helicopters, transports, jet fighters and observation planes, operating in what one officer called fantastic coordination.

On the heels of the paratroopers, helicopter-lifted soldiers fanned out in landing zones on the flanks, creating a bristling arc of U.S. firepower on the northern part of War Zone C in Tay Ninh Province, northwest of Saigon.

Powerful columns of tanks, more personnel carriers and infantry moved up from the south and around the flanks to complete a loose encirclement of the area where U.S. forces hoped to trap the political leadership of the Viet Cong.

Initial reports from the battlefield indicated Viet Cong resistance to the first assault was confined to sniping fire, booby traps and mines.

The new drive, though launched Wednesday, was not officially disclosed until late today for security reasons.

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. B52 bombers raided the Communist war zone C today for the fifth time in two days, and U.S. headquarters also reported a single-day record by smaller tactical bombers of 575 sorties in South Vietnam.

The concentrated B52 pounding of Zone C, a long-time Viet Cong jungle bastion near the Cambodian border, raised speculation that it might be the curtain-raiser to another drive on the ground.

The high-flying B52s struck today at a Viet Cong base camp 25 miles north of Tay Ninh City and close to Cambodia.

Ground action was reported light throughout South Vietnam Wednesday by both the U.S. and South Vietnamese high commands.

South Vietnamese troops uncovered two large Viet Cong arms caches in the Mekong Delta which included six tons of enemy ammunition and eight 75mm artillery pieces. A Vietnamese spokesman said the Viet Cong intended to use the cannon to form their first artillery battalion.

The Viet Cong have not used artillery to any extent so far in the war. A Vietnamese spokesman said the eight cannon seized were believed to be American made and had been mounted on wheels by the Viet Cong.

They were found, along with the haul of ammunition and 322 individual weapons, in a Viet Cong base in muddy coastal delta land 42 miles south of Saigon.

In uncovering the base, the spokesman said, government troops killed 42 Viet Cong and captured 19 others.

U.S. headquarters reported that allied troops killed 2,029 Communist soldiers in last week's bloody fighting, the highest weekly enemy toll since the la Drang Valley fighting in November 1965. The enemy casualties, much of them inflicted in fighting on the central coastal plains, were nearly double the 1,085 Communists reported killed the previous week.

American losses last week were reported to be 172 dead and 802 wounded, compared with 107 dead and 1,015 wounded in the previous week. South Vietnamese dead totaled 110 last week compared with 193 the week before.

100 Strokes a Night

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Don't brush off brushing. Any woman who is concerned with her crowning glory will tell you that the hair's best friend is a good brush.

But the brush should be designed to fit your particular hair needs. In fact, it's a good idea to have two brushes.

A nylon bristle brush with rounded tips for stimulating the scalp can also double for styling.

However, nothing is finer than a natural bristle brush for cleaning the hair and for bringing out its natural highlights.

Think it's too much trouble? Not really. That famous 100 strokes a night can't take more than 10 minutes and the satisfying end result is certainly worth the time spent.

Don't ever worry about vigorous brushing ruining your new set. If your hair is cut and shaped properly and has the bounce it ought to have, your set will fall right into place.

Neutrals in the Communist Bloc

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—A neutralist bloc is emerging on the scene of international communism and growing with unexpected speed.

Like President De Gaulle, who wants Europe to act as a "third force" between the United States and Russia, the Red neutralists see themselves as a third force between Moscow and Peking.

Romania which has taken the lead in rejecting Russian domination has now been joined by the North Korean, Japanese, Italian and Cuban Communists.

Fidel Castro, who tried to balance himself unsuccessfully between Russia and Red China, is showing increasing signs of favoring the neutralists.

Even North Vietnam, in spite of its precarious position between Moscow and Peking, reportedly is veering toward a neutralist stand.

Ho Chi Minh is a strong supporter of Russia. But he has always followed the line of North Korea in the ranks of international communism. He is not likely to remain far behind now that North Korea and other Asian Reds are openly proclaiming their neutral stand in the growing conflict between Russia and China.

Mao Tse-tung's chaotic "cultural revolution" has left Peking isolated in the Red world.

But Moscow's prestige also sank to a new low when Romania decided to establish diplomatic relations with West Germany, despite the protests of the Russians and their East German puppet, Walter Ulbricht.

Communist East Germany fears for its very existence as long as the West does not recognize it as an independent German state. The prospect of having West German embassies in the capitals of Communist East Europe heightens this fear.

Now Hungary is reported to be ready to join the neutralists and resume diplomatic relations with West Germany.

Like President Johnson, Russia's Communist party chief Khrushchev and Premier Kosygin find it increasingly difficult to influence their allies. Their Warsaw Pact organization is even in as great a state of dissolution as NATO, its Western counterpart.

The Russians have repeatedly failed in their efforts to convene an international conference of Reds that would give formal authority to Moscow's position against Peking.

The emergence of the neutralist bloc which refuses to commit itself to either side in the battle of the Russian and Chinese giants is the clearest sign that a united Red movement is no longer possible.

For American foreign policy the Communist neu-

THREE OF A KIND? Not really. Mao Tse-tung, left, Ho Chi Minh and Fidel Castro are all Communists, but they don't always think alike.

John Doe Meets Ivan Ivanovich

By JOAN CROSBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—If the average American family could spend a day with the average Russian family, there would be little animosity between the countries, believes Desmond Smith.

Where John Doe works for dollars, a comfortable home for his family and a new car, Ivan Ivanovich works for rubles, a comfortable home for his family and a new car.

DESMOND SMITH
... very money-conscious in Russia ...

Ivan earns about $45 a week. He, his wife, his daughter and his son live in a four-room apartment with each room 12 by 15. Ivan's wife works at the same factory as he does, and his children have rugged schedules of schooling and athletic activities.

The typical Russians are the "stars" of a television documentary called Ivan

Ivanovich which Smith has produced for telecasting on ABC-TV on Feb. 27.

"We were allowed to pick the family we used," the youthful-looking, sandy-haired Canadian said. "We went to Rostselmash, a farm machine plant with 33,000 workers in Rostov-on-Don, and asked them to give us a list of families where the father was on the sub-foreman level, and there were at least two children. From that list we interviewed the families and picked the Mal'tsev family, a really outstanding one."

One of the conditions Smith made to the Russians was that the film would not be censored. They were very cooperative, except in the matter of the opening shot which Smith wanted.

"I saw one of those West Side Story openings where we would fly over the Don and over the town to the apartment where our family lived. Then we would zoom into a window and begin our story. But aerial shots are forbidden and I spent five weeks before I got a partial O.K. We could fly over the Don but not the town. That was the most expensive shot in the film. We spent 1,000 rubles on it. They are very money-conscious in Russia and not the least hesitant about asking for money. But, at least, when they get it, they deliver what they have promised, unlike Vietnam, which is filled with graft."

One of the longest associations in show business is the one between Rosemary De Camp and the Borax Co. She has been the firm's spokesman for 15 years on radio and television versions of their syndicated series, Death Valley Days. Acting?

"Well, occasionally I get to act. But as one gets older there are fewer parts in westerns—just the old hag who comes out and says 'They went thataway.'"

What attractive, lively Rose-

ROSEMARY DE CAMP
... occasionally I get to act ...

mary does do in her spare time (and as a successful career woman and wife to a Los Angeles judge and mother to four daughters, she doesn't have much), is design and make copper enamel plates.

"The trouble is that the plates are selling to people who have seen them, which leads me to believe they are not good. The reason I began selling them was to pay for my habit. They are much more satisfying than ceramics and can be made quickly. I have also found a guy who will pound out some of my mistakes at 10 cents an inch, which isn't too expensive. As I get better, I figure I will get obscure and artistic, then no one will buy them."

Heat Soup Kettle

Is there a handsome soup kettle in the house? Are there any pieces of meat left over from yesterday's roast in the refrigerator? Would you welcome an easy and different dinner for a change? If the answers are all "yes," then plan a hearty soup kettle supper the family will enjoy.

Cube the leftover roast and then brown with a little carrot, celery, or onion in one or two tablespoons of butter. Add condensed soup and other cooked ingredients. Heat for 5 or 6 minutes and serve right from the kettle you cooked it in, or from an attractive bowl or tureen. Serve with plenty of crackers or preferably with hot, buttered, crusty French bread. Then a tossed salad, and for dessert a wedge of pie with cheese or a turnover with ice cream.

BEEF SOUP KETTLE SUPPER

- 1 1/2 cups cubed cooked beef
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed beef soup
- 1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed beef broth
- 1 1/2 soup cans water
- 1 can (10 ounces) tomatoes, chopped
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 1/2 Dash garlic powder
- 1 cup cooked medium noodles

Brown beef and cook onion in butter until tender. Add soups, water, tomatoes and seasonings. Simmer a few minutes. Add noodles. Garnish with dollop sour cream, if desired. Four to 6 servings.

PORK SOUP KETTLE SUPPER

- 1/2 cup cubed cooked pork
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of celery soup
- 1/4 cup shredded carrot
- 1/4 cup can water
- 1/2 cup diced cooked potato
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 1 Dash pepper

Brown pork and cook carrot in butter until tender. Blend in soup and remaining ingredients. Heat; stir now and then. Two to 3 servings.

Fish Fillets with Peanut Stuffing

FISH FILLETS with peanut filling hit the spot.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Either as a fish course, or as the main dinner dish, you'll enjoy this recipe for fresh or frozen fish fillets rolled and stuffed with chopped peanuts, bread crumbs, heavy cream and a few drops of onion juice.

Yes, it might be called a gourmet dish. But it is actually very easy to prepare at home. For the main course, serve the peanut-stuffed fillet rolls with sliced lemon, french green beans and boiled new potatoes sprinkled with minced parsley or dill.

FISH FILLETS WITH PEANUT STUFFING

- 4 fish fillets, fresh or frozen
 - 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
 - 1/2 cup fine, dry bread crumbs
 - 1/2 cup chopped peanuts
 - 1/2 cup heavy cream
 - Few drops onion juice
 - Salt and pepper
- If fish is frozen, let thaw on refrigerator shelf until fillets can be separated. Combine 2 tablespoons of the melted butter with bread crumbs, peanuts, cream, onion juice and seasonings. Roll fillets around inside of four greased custard cups or muffin tins. Spoon stuffing into centers. Brush tops with remaining 2 tablespoons melted butter and bake in 375-degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes, or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Four servings.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—What two nations make up Tanzania?

A—Tanganyika and Zanzibar.

Q—What is the origin of the expression, "Sow your wild oats"?

A—Wild oats are a weed similar in appearance to oats but completely worthless. So a youngster "sowing his wild oats" is wasting his time on fruitless activities, just as a man would if he were to plant a field of wild oats.

Toward Fate

By DICK KLEINER
Hollywood Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — This may be the year Mike Nichols fails on his face. If he does, it won't worry him. In fact, he gives the impression that he is almost looking forward to the experience.

In 1966, after he had established himself as one of Broadway's young directorial whizzes, he tried his first film. The result, "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" was a huge critical and box-office success. This year, he'll do his second movie, "The Graduate," then a revival of "The Little Foxes" at Lincoln Center in New York, and next his third movie, "Catch-22."

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

It is an ambitious schedule. Anybody would look forward to it with some fear and Mike Nichols has his share. But it is what he calls "legitimate fear," and it needs some explanation.

"It is not a fear of failure," he says. "Show me a director who has had a long run of successes and I'll show you someone who only does sure things. I expect to fall on my face sometimes. I hope I do—but what I want to do is fall on my face from a high place."

"My big fear is that I won't have the guts to try something difficult."

To Nichols, the words "success" and "failure" don't mean too much. Neither, apparently, does "happiness" and "unhappiness." At least they don't convey to him the conventional emotions. He says that too often we assume that our best moments are connected with "success" or "happiness."

"I think," he says, "that failure and unhappiness can be good things. Maybe even better than success and happiness."

He went to see Francis Ford Coppola's "You're a Big Boy Now." He thought it was superb, but he found himself perspiring. Afterwards he met another young director, Arthur Penn, who said, "Boy, it was hot in there, wasn't it?"

"We both recognized Coppola's talent," Nichols says. "And it made us afraid. But I wasn't afraid that it would hurt me. I was simply afraid because it made me doubt my own abilities."

Nichols says he has found Hollywood the most generous place he has ever seen. He didn't expect it to be the way it is. He expected jealousy, and there has been none.

"When it was announced that I was going to do 'Woolf,'" he says, "I was called by perfect strangers—veteran directors like Mankiewicz, Wyler, Wilder—who asked me if they could help

MIKE NICHOLS
"My big fear is that I won't have the guts..."

me and took me to lunch and gave me many wonderful tips.

"I have learned that here in Hollywood, more than anywhere else and certainly more than on Broadway, there is a love of work. Everyone I've met—even people I don't particularly admire—is in love with what he is doing."

He has a practical attitude toward the business. He calls the word "creativity" "the second most unpleasant word in the English language." (The first is "art.") He prefers to call what he does simply "work."

"Hollywood is as conducive to good work as anywhere else," he says. "The business is cyclical—maybe this year the best work will be done by the Czechs. But the pendulum keeps moving and I think we have some wonderful young directors here now."

He is writing the screenplay for "The Graduate" with Buck Henry. Nichols says he needs someone to work with, that he could never write alone.

"The other day," Nichols says, "Buck wrote something and I said, 'My, you are a brilliant young man.' Buck said, 'Thanks, but it was your idea first.' When you have a good collaboration, ideas work like that."
